Termination of Erectile Dysfunction (ED) Drug Coverage for Individuals Convicted of a Sex Offense - Effective As Of May 27, 2005

The purpose of this memorandum is to notify you that, effective as of May 27, 2005, the Virginia Medicaid Program is no longer covering erectile dysfunction (ED) drugs for individuals convicted of a sex offense.

Governor Mark R. Warner signed an Emergency Regulation giving DMAS the authority to terminate this Medicaid benefit for convicted sex offenders, including 52 enrollees who have received ED drugs paid for by Medicaid. The Governor also directed DMAS to initiate appropriate administrative procedures to ensure that convicted sex offenders do not receive ED drugs paid for by Medicaid going forward.

A system edit was implemented on May 27, 2005, which informs pharmacists when an ED drug is not covered for a particular patient. This edit is designed to stop Medicaid from paying for ED drugs for convicted sex offenders. Pharmacists and physicians may contact DMAS to obtain more information on this particular edit.

DMAS will update its database regularly to add Medicaid recipients, who have been convicted of a sex offense, as they become known to DMAS.
